BIPS CODE OF ETHICS POLICY

It is the policy of Barrier Island Parks Society that its board member, officer or employee shall uphold the highest standards of ethical, professional behavior. To that end, the board member, officer and employee shall dedicate themselves to carrying out the mission of this organization and shall:

- 1) Treat with respect and consideration all persons, regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, maternity, marital or family status, disability, age or national origin.
- 2) Engage in carrying out the mission of Barrier Island Parks Society in an honorable and professional manner with integrity and dignity.
- 3) Not solicit or accept anything of value including a gift, loan, reward, promise of future employment, favor or service that would influence their official action, vote or judgment in favor of the giver.
- 4) Not accept any compensation, payment, or thing of value when the person knows, or, with reasonable care, should know that it was given to influence a vote or other action in which the CSO board member, officer, or employee was expected to participate in his or her official capacity.
- 5) Not be prohibited from voting on a matter affecting his or her salary, expenses, or other compensation as a CSO board member or officer, as provided by law.
- 6) Not corruptly use or attempt to use one's official position or any property or resource which may be within one's trust to secure a special privilege, benefit or exemption.
- 7) Not disclose or use information not available to members of the general public gained by one's official position for one's own personal gain or benefit or for the personal benefit or gain of any other person or business entity.
- 10) Not hold an employee and board officer position at the same time.
- 11) Accept as a personal duty the responsibility to keep up to date on emerging issues and to conduct themselves with professional competence, fairness, impartiality, efficiency, and effectiveness.

12) Not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before the governing body of the CSO of which he or she was a board member, officer, or employee for a period of two years after he or she vacates that office or employment position.

13) Abstain from voting in an official capacity or participate in decisions that would result in a direct or indirect financial benefit to them, a family member, friend or business associate. When abstaining, the board member or officer prior to the vote being taken, shall make reasonable effort to disclose the nature of their interest as a public record in a memorandum to be entered into the board minutes. If it is not possible to file a memorandum prior to the vote, the memorandum must be entered into the board minutes of the meeting no later than 15 days after the vote.

14) Conduct organizational and operational duties with positive leadership exemplified by open communication, creativity, dedication, and compassion.

15) Hold paramount the safety, health and welfare of the public, volunteers, board members, officers and employees in the performance of duties supporting the mission of Barrier Island Parks Society.

16) Collaborate with and support other professionals in carrying out the mission of Barrier Island Parks Society.

17) Recognize that the chief function of Barrier Island Parks Society at all times is to serve the best interests of its affiliated parks, members and community.

18) Abide by the By-Laws, and Policies and Procedures set in place by Barrier Island Parks Society.

19) Serve with respect, concern, courtesy, and responsiveness in carrying out the Mission of Barrier Island Parks Society.

20) Demonstrate the highest standards of personal integrity, truthfulness, and honesty in all activities in order to inspire confidence and trust in such activities.

21) Avoid any interest or activity that is in conflict with the conduct of their official duties.

22) Strive for personal and professional excellence and encourage the professional developments of others.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be carefully documented to ensure the integrity of the financial data.

2. The second part outlines the procedures for reconciling bank statements with the company's internal records. This process is crucial for identifying discrepancies and ensuring that the books are balanced.

3. The third part details the methods for calculating depreciation and amortization. It provides formulas and examples to help determine the correct values for these expenses, which are essential for accurate financial reporting.

4. The fourth part covers the treatment of various types of income and expenses, including interest, dividends, and capital gains. It explains how these items should be classified and reported in the financial statements.

5. The fifth part discusses the impact of tax laws on the company's financial position. It provides guidance on how to properly account for tax payments and deductions, ensuring compliance with applicable regulations.

6. The sixth part addresses the issue of foreign exchange rates and their effect on the company's financial statements. It explains how to convert foreign currency transactions into the reporting currency and how to handle exchange rate fluctuations.

7. The seventh part provides a summary of the key points discussed in the document. It reiterates the importance of accuracy, transparency, and adherence to accounting standards in all financial reporting.

8. The eighth part includes a list of references and additional resources for further study. It points to relevant accounting textbooks, professional standards, and online resources that can provide more detailed information on the topics covered.

9. The ninth part contains a glossary of key terms and definitions used throughout the document. This helps to ensure that all readers have a clear understanding of the terminology used in the financial statements.

10. The tenth part provides a final conclusion, summarizing the overall findings and recommendations of the document. It emphasizes the need for continuous improvement and regular review of the accounting processes to maintain the highest level of accuracy and reliability.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It details the steps involved in the accounting cycle, from identifying the transaction to posting it to the appropriate ledger account.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the records. It describes the various audit procedures used to test the reliability of the accounting data and to ensure that the financial statements are presented fairly.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the issue of internal controls. It explains how a well-designed system of internal controls can help to minimize the risk of errors and fraud, and it provides examples of effective control measures.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and disclosure in financial reporting. It argues that providing clear and concise information about the company's financial performance is crucial for the confidence of investors and other stakeholders.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the role of the board of directors in overseeing the financial reporting process. It emphasizes the board's responsibility for ensuring that the financial statements are accurate and reliable, and it provides guidance on how the board should fulfill this duty.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of ethical behavior in the financial reporting process. It argues that honesty and integrity are essential for the credibility of the financial system, and it provides examples of ethical dilemmas that may arise in the course of financial reporting.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the role of the regulatory authorities in enforcing the rules of financial reporting. It describes the various regulatory bodies that oversee the financial reporting process, and it explains how they enforce the rules and standards that govern financial reporting.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of ongoing monitoring and improvement of the financial reporting process. It argues that the financial reporting process is not a static one, and it must be continuously monitored and improved to ensure that it remains effective and efficient.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of communication in the financial reporting process. It argues that clear and effective communication is essential for the success of the financial reporting process, and it provides examples of how to communicate financial information effectively.
