

Katherine Beck, Florida Main Street Coordinator

Katherine Beck has served as the Main Street Coordinator for the State of Florida since October 2018. Her background includes policy and comprehensive planning analysis, advocacy, residential and commercial real estate sales, development and construction, and business management.