Christian Wanamaker
*Invasive Species
Survey Coordinator*
UF/IFAS

Christian is the current Coordinator for the UF Invasive Species Survey, a citizen science project meant to improve invasive species reporting to improve land management across public and private lands in Florida. Prior to this role, he worked as a GIS/Data Analyst with the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission's Nonnative Fish & Wildlife Program, and as a research analyst for the UF/IFAS Assessment for Nonnative Plants.

He's also a current UF student working to complete his M.Sc. in Interdisciplinary Ecology, where his research focuses on the relative performance of native and invasive grass species under climate-stress.
