ELIGIBLE APPLICANT & ELIGIBLE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY

“Eligible Applicant” means the individual, corporation, trust, or other legal entity eligible to be a grantee. An agent may make application upon behalf of an applicant, but such agent is not the applicant, grantee, or otherwise eligible for reimbursement.

“Grantee” means an eligible applicant that is the recorded deeded landowner for the eligible residential property who has complied with all documentation requirements and received a grant from the Department

“Eligible residential property” means a parcel that is a coastal property on the beach located in Brevard, Broward, Charlotte, Collier, Duval, Flagler, Indian River, Lee, Manatee, Martin, Nassau, Palm Beach, Saint Johns, Saint Lucie, Sarasota, or Volusia County that is either:

1. A single-family, site-built, residential property where the homeowner has been granted a homestead exemption on the home under chapter 196, F.S.;
2. A multi-family, site-built, residential property where the homeowner has been granted a homestead exemption on the home under chapter 196, F.S.;
3. A residential condominium, as defined in chapter 718, F.S.; or
4. A cooperative, as defined in chapter 719, F.S.

ELIGIBLE PROJECT

“Eligible project” means construction activities that occurred after September 23, 2022, related to sand placement, temporary coastal armoring, or permanent coastal armoring construction projects intended to prepare for or remedy coastal beach erosion or damage sustained from Hurricane Ian or Hurricane Nicole.

- Project must be at eligible residential property.
- Projects must be permitted or authorized under chapter 161, F.S., prior to the commencement of authorized work, exempt from permitting requirements, or otherwise authorized by law.
- The address on any issued permit under chapter 161, F.S., must match the address on the eligible residential property.

ELIGIBLE COSTS

“Eligible costs” construction costs associated with execution of an eligible project that have been incurred and for which the grantee has evidence of payment. Construction costs may include design, engineering, construction-related monitoring required by permit or contract, surveys, materials, labor, contractors, and construction oversight. Eligible costs do not include permit fees or repair of residential structures. Reimbursement of eligible costs may be no greater than $300,000 per parcel and no greater than 50% of the total incurred costs.

GRANT APPLICATION REQUIRED SUBMITTALS

- a. The parcel identification number for the applicable county;
- b. A valid social security number or tax identification number;
- c. Proof the eligible applicant resides at the address to which a check is asked to be mailed, if different than the eligible residential property address;
- d. A copy of the permit issued under chapter 161, F.S., prior to the commencement of work for which a grant is sought, or applicable statutory exemption or other authorization;
- e. Documentation of eligible project expenses (e.g., for a completed project, photos of the completed project; for projects not yet fully complete, a copy of the design and engineering plans or similar evidence of work);
- f. Paid invoices and associated documentation showing work conducted for the eligible project, dates of work, and proof of payment;
- g. If applicable, Form 3, DEP-62ER24-1, Attestation of Low-Income or Moderate-Income;
