Park Manager's Comments on the CSO & Park Relationship and Support:

Provide your perspective on

This Memo will serve as the Park manager's annual report of the Stephen Foster Citizen support organization for January 2020 – December 2020. Continued goals and objectives of the CSO that have been specifically targeted were to continue to support the park's special events and restore/ repair Carillon Tower and Museum dioramas.

The CSO has supported the Tower restoration. 2020 Festival of Lights the park was able to continue and maintained COVID Safety protocols. CSO supported attracting outside groups to assist decoration and securing use of a self-propelled mobile hi-lift and getting directional highway signs.

The CSO also continued in financial support of the Florida Folk Festival by donating funds for the feature performers, event program and securing the services of a social media marketing company to develop a program that was held virtually.

The overall outlook for the Stephen Foster CSO is good. They continue to help support the park, and they are dedicated to the park and making it the best it can be. I look for in reaching the goals and objective that we have sought to achieve.

CSO President's Comments on the CSO & Park Relationship and Support:

Provide your perspective on the relationship between the park and CSO. What went well? Are there areas of improvement?

The relationship between the Stephen Foster State Park and Folk Culture Center staff and the CSO is strong. 2020 will forever be known as the year of COVID and the required safety restrictions of isolation, social distancing, and event cancelations. While these restrictions have caused much angst and loss of revenue and CSO members, I want to thank the Park Manager and Staff for there dedication to safety and communicating clearly to the CSO the Current operational status and requirements throughout the year. As a new CSO President, I have built a strong relationship with the Park Manager and key staff. Our communication is open, honest and is two way.

Despite the Trials of COVID 19, The CSO has Supported the Virtual Folk Festival for 2020 and also for 2021. This was a undertaking of necessity as we want to support the continuation of the Folk Festival Legacy and to keep our audience aware of the Festival until the next in person Folk Festival in 2022. The CSO with the support of the Park Staff was able to have the festival of Lights in December. This event was drive through only due to safety. We want to express our thanks to the Park Manager and his staff for their support. This event was well received by the community during the Holidays.

The CSO is also submitting two grants in 2021 for support in 2022. One is a folk culture grant to allow us to recruit more traditional artists for the Florida Folk Festival in 2022, the second one is a Historic Preservation Grant to assist with the restoration and repairs of the Carillion tower. Both of these grants fall well within our core mission of supporting and improving the park.
